Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Tuesday, November 13, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

You are trying to forget yourself, in these difficult days for you, by continuing to serve us. Your overarching wish is to be connected with us. By doing so, you dismiss thoughts that may otherwise disturb your usual serenity. We understand your fears; it is not easy to remain completely surrendered under such circumstances.

"Be confident, as much as possible, my dear daughter. Our love carries you; it enriches your life and gives it a special dimension. You are serving us with love; it is your sole motivation, our relationship is exemplary. You will be in the annals as the privileged medium, because your only preoccupation is to satisfy us. You do not like us to insist on your role in this business, and to highlight it. It is fair that we act thus.

"We will not insist more, you need to rest. If possible, spare for yourself moments of meditation.

"Be blessed."

Babuji