Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Yes, we are here; the channel is open. What you receive through these messages, attentive and fervent readers will also receive. They are not insignificant; their simplicity conceals a secret language which prepared souls must decode.

"We do not want to maintain mystery, but how can the unexplainable be explained? We will revert to the time-honoured expression: make of it what you will.

"Anything related to the Divine is surrounded inevitably by this mystery which intrigues men. Knowledge is granted to them as light emerges within them. It comes from the heart, the depths of their being, which lets itself be won over only by a truth that is related to their evolution.

"The intricacies of the soul let themselves be conquered little by little. This conquest takes place slowly, surreptitiously, to lead to a complete victory. The soul aspires to looking back to its original source where it can be lost in the infinite love: where nothing any more can reach it, where it can exult endlessly, bathing in the absolute light."
