Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Monday, November 26, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

The divine leniency is great: all humans profit from it. Grace is present in their life; they are not always ready to assess its effects. It transforms man's heart, by generally imbibing it without his knowledge. Everything is done to allow him to rise; opportunities arise which are not recognised as such, since these are in reality tests to surmount. When he comes out of it victorious, grace abounds and he grows in wisdom. His soul advances towards the light. When he has reached a certain stage of evolution, the gleams he perceives of it leave him stunned and overjoyed.

"This emergence shatters him; he then becomes aware of this transformation that gives another meaning to his life. This work takes place slowly. All benefit from it at different paces, but nobody is excluded. The entire creation benefits from this mercy whereby each atom of creation benefits from the same experience. This long work bears its fruit, even if it is not detectable with the eyes of men.

"You should become well aware of this great principle. Call for the divine grace unceasingly, not only for you, but for all that lives and moves on this Earth, since you are part of it."
