Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Monday, November 26, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

Anything done to you is done to us. Thank this dear daughter-in-heart for her attentive care of you. We are sensitive to this. Whatever is done to make your daily life easier is worth appreciating. Helping you in the various aspects of your material life is also a way of facilitating the work you are doing for us and as such is part in it.

"You all are interdependent on one another, do not forget it. You, who have been following us for a long time, are nearing a stage of evolution where you must become aware of the need to be attentive to your fellow creature. Beyond the harshness of character, which can slow you down, you should try to see in your brother the emanation of the divine which makes a person of him. Each being living on this Earth plays a part in this immense fabric which humanity constitutes.

"You all are interdependent; we have underlined this aspect of creation time and again. Harming, killing, and even consciously torturing are serious acts that hinder the general evolution of this planet. The responsibility goes beyond a personal point of view; such facts fit into a collective karma with frightening effects. Let us pray so that the entire humanity becomes aware of it."
