Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Thursday, November 29, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

y child, live each day as a blessing. Widen your horizon, think of the greatness of creation, its complexity, but also its beauty. Give thanks for taking part in the development of a better world. Each effort on oneself bears fruit; it contributes to the collective work – manifestation of the illuminated souls. A life on this Earth is only a sigh on the register of time, a breath, with regard to eternity. May it, however weak it is, contribute to its greatness!

"You all, who understood what an incarnation represents, are advancing, happy-hearted, in spite of tests of all kinds, which can punctuate your way.

"They are necessary, we have said it enough. Man must persuade himself about it – which is no easy task. Acceptance is the hallmark of a soul having gone through the stages of a heavy and afflicting karma. Its light is beautiful to see; it glorifies the Creator in His work.

"To advance while looking unremittingly towards the goal is commendable. May the peace of the heart always be with you."
