Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Tuesday, December 4, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

My child, you should consider the positive sides of life. Do not let yourself be affected so much by other people's ordeals; you cannot carry the world on your shoulders. You know how to provide real help without wearing down your moral strength.

"Put things in perspective; you cannot change things that must be. Thank God for placing humanity in a situation which enables it to progress and rise towards a higher life. This period of turbulences is painful to go through, but there are no other means to reach more serene places. We can only repeat ourselves about this aspect: there are no alternate options currently, for this planet.

"You know how to find inner peace; it is a great chance for you and all those who go through a process placing them in a way of love and surrender, and who understand the great principles driving humanity. All of you have enough discernment to understand all the reasons thereof. May you help your brothers to accept their destiny whatever it is."
