Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Tuesday, December 4, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

My son longs to come and rejoin us. It is not easy to assume heavy responsibilities with a body that undergoes the onslaughts of time. A Master of his calibre must hold his role until the end; he cannot fail in his commitment. This opportunity of communication with us provides him comfort. Be thanked, you who are involved in this matter as messengers.

"No human is spared on this Earth; all must undergo more or less the same kind of test. Disease, loss of loved ones and difficulties of all kinds always catch up with common mortals. Man accepts with difficulty that he has to undergo the throes of an inevitable karma. Knowing the rules that govern its manifestations helps to endure them. Until the end of his life, that is how it will go; only acceptance can be of great help for him. Happy are those who admit to these divine laws: they advance towards a liberating sense of wisdom.

"Be confident in a future clear of all these torments, inherent in the rules which govern this world."
