Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

e know what concerns you. We see beyond the appearances that mislead humans, and we are not taken in. My dear daughter, we know your struggles. You have always faced up to things with courage. Continue to smile and serve us as long as you can.

"Isn't your Master subjected to more bitter criticisms than those you are facing? The more exposed a human being is, the harder the criticisms are. It is enough to look around you, in the present or the past: it always was thus. Man reassures himself by demeaning his fellow creature; this is how a large majority of individuals behave.

"The behaviour of one or the other does not matter, what counts above all is what each one makes of one's life. Is he attentive to his neighbours? Does he facilitate his personal evolution by respecting certain principles of life?

"The subject is vast and the being becomes aware little by little of all errors he has made or may have made in the past.

"A long process leads him to a clearer view inside. Once he has reached this stage, he can start controlling his life and understanding mechanisms that hinder it. The awakening will make him fully aware of pitfalls to be avoided; life and its traps will be clearly revealed to him. He will then have taken a great and decisive step; grace will complete his works."
