Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Thursday, December 6, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

My son's view is right: the whole of these messages, whatever their source, constitute a treasure in which the future will appreciate their true worth. Not everything will be understood by all of our aspirants. Many still have to progress to admit the reality of these contacts. Your channeling capabilities are not commonplace; for you this is the most natural thing ever, since this is how you are.

"Your gifts were refined with time and your performances are well established and cannot be disputed by the exegetes who will study the whole of these messages. What they will have to do is to only follow the main thread which has remained intact from the beginning – with a lot of trial and error in the first contacts – to now where mastery has been acquired in the matter.

"We do not claim to provide miracle cures with these teachings; we put emphasis on obstacles hindering the rise of humanity. Opening its eyes provides considerable help. May our brothers read us with attention and perseverance! Imperceptibly they will change and understand the interest of our remarks."
