Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fourth Revelation

Friday, December 7, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

That is good, you are making progress, and you are able to receive us even in unfavourable situations.

"The circulation of energy between our two hearts is well established. You can assess the distance you have come to arrive at this easiness.

"Beings around you and those who will have access to these messages will not be able to imagine how much you gave of your person to achieve this result.

"We mentioned the notion of service previously, here is an illustration of it; it necessarily entails sacrifice, even if it is agreed to with love.

"Where would the attractiveness reside of a life devoted to whims, to self-satisfaction, without looking around oneself, without the least commitment towards others? A frenzied self-centredness leads to the greatest isolation and limits life. To grow richer, it must closely mix not only with one's fellow creatures, but all forms of life, and it must be engaged in a dedicated and selfless action.

"Thus does an incarnation take on its full meaning: opening up to others is the purpose of the long process which justifies it. Selfishness does not bear fruit; it makes the creature regress by holding it far away from the altar where the celestial agreements are signed.

"You who read us are completely able to understand the true meaning of our remarks."
