Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Tuesday, December 11, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

Your body renders you great service; it burns with a liberating glow which raises you up to planes which you aspire to reach. You are like a hot-air balloon, which ascends thanks to the combustion that sets it in motion. Consider your life like an offering to the Divine. Let this other flame burn in your heart – this one is a song of love which hallows all this alchemy.

"Once this stage has been reached, the spiritual life takes a larger place at the cusp of two completely opposite worlds. One is extremely materialistic, and the other is completely out of time, as is lived by these great sages of India or somewhere else who are perfectly detached from the world, whose souls brim over with love in a body worn-out by the onslaughts of time. They are extraordinary beings; beacons intended to illuminate the world and to bring to it, in the silence of meditation, the benefits of this divine work. These great souls represent a powerful support for humanity.

"These beings are not understood by a majority of individuals, especially in the West where these concepts are mocked.

"Anyway, each one has their own role, starting from the foot of the ladder. There are many degrees: the higher the degree, the more risky the rise.

"An unfailing faith is the only force possible that is capable of making a success of this exploit."
