Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

The retreat being undertaken by your Master in Satkhol is beneficial to all. The proximity of the highest summits of the Himalayas makes him enjoy the specific aura of this site. He then shares this very special force with the multitude – he, the privileged vector of the divine power.

"We expect much for him from a stay in this blessed place. He should regain physical strength up there, in view of the great celebrations organised in the Mission. The abhyasis are seeking; he cannot any more attend to all the requests physically, which results in rather opposite reactions – expressed in various ways.

"Some of our brothers grow slack in their practice, whereas others, on the contrary, compensate for this lack with great eagerness. They are the wisest; they understand that the physical presence does not determine the Master's action. Our brothers will have to more and more make the effort of going towards him.

"The fact of accomplishing this trip, with utmost eagerness and love for their Master, will earn them humanly priceless blessings. Our Indian aspirants achieve feats to meet with him. The mere fact of seeing him rewards them for all their sacrifices. This nobility of soul is commendable and fruitful. May it be exemplary!"
