Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Thursday, December 13, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

Each human being must follow their specific way. Nobody can do for them what they have to do with respect to their karmic duties.

"Man, considered in this world as being 'very important', does not escape at all what is reserved for him. The honours he is covered with, the low bows from his fellow beings, the apparent easiness of his life are many of the traps he will have to avoid.

"The only true nobility is that of the heart. The greatness of an individual is measured neither by his social status nor his bank account. Humans are very sensitive to these deceptive appearances. The sages, instead, have a clearer view of this; they look beyond such considerations. The intrinsic value of an individual, and only it, is worth noticing. Men bathe in this world of illusion by letting themselves be taken in by false values. We have been trying for a long time to raise awareness about the shortcomings of this world and its deceptions.

"Our brothers must refrain from these misjudgements, which lead man astray, away from the goal.

"May you all keep enough clear-headedness to escape this."
