Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Sunday, December 16, 2001 - 9:40 a.m.

Why would you not have a little rest? You deserve it well; there is no cause for feelings of guilt. We did not have anything urgent to transmit, only the usual matters which we will catch up with.

"It is good, for you, to have the appreciation of some people who have access to these messages. They give you helpful feedback on this work. Looking at it from the outside, they feel it differently, and their approach is important for you.

"You need to be reassured in this special and extraordinary activity and to be recognised by your fellow creatures – which is altogether normal. You live in this world and you must conform to its rules, even if your heart does not adhere to it any more. Part of your being is in another dimension, which enables it to find the strength to continue, in spite of the living conditions that affect the health of the physical body. You receive strength, which allows you to face up to things despite everything and to expend the necessary energy to receive us.

"My daughter, be strong. Your Master supports you; you have his total approval. He recognises your work fully; even if for the moment, he cannot do it openly."
