Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Tuesday, December 18, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

Advance in confidence, go beyond this lifetime, get a glimpse of a future elsewhere, full of your current and past assets. One day, the incidents of this incarnation will be instantly forgotten.

"Your progress is enlightening – do not deny it. You must instead be thankful for all the experiences you have been privileged to go through. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof; thinking about tomorrow is useless. Anything good or bad that must happen cannot be avoided. Be surrendered to the divine will, my child. Anything that happens is for your good; there is nothing you can do about it. We are close to you and we help you in our own way. All is well, believe us.

"At the end of the road, you will realise the truth of our remarks and you will then be able to draw the imperative conclusion: life is worth living. Whatever the burden that is making it heavier, it makes a being grow richer – not as he sees fit at the material level, but in more ways than one, which are the only important ones. You know all this already, we are repeating ourselves, but how could we do otherwise since this life is a mere series of repetitions?"
