Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Friday, December 21, 2001 - 8:00 a.m.

Light is dawning on a humanity in total disarray. This century will witness the birth of a new era that will utterly transform it. In future centuries, the current civilisation will be swept away and will be rebuilt according to new standards that are respectful to man, who, in his turn, will show consideration for the eventually calmer elements that will have made him become clear-headed on his fragility and his obligations towards this planet. He will have also calmed down regarding his ideas of space conquest, though he is ignorant of what he is willing to conquer.

"He will have big surprises, and will move from a conqueror mind-set to being subjugated to higher beings that will hold him at bay – he who does not respect anything. His thirst for adventure and discovery of other worlds is commendable, but it is not expressed in the appropriate spirit. He wants to conquer, dominate, and he especially does not respect the environment, as he acts in a harmful way to the advanced forms of life existing therein.

"He will have to re-examine the facts and realise that he is not the higher being he believed himself to be. By reverting to humility, he will be ready to carry on his evolution in a more realistic way."
