Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Monday, December 24, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

My dear daughter, we will remain in the same spirit as before; the past builds the present, but it should not influence it consciously. This is why humans do not have access to the memories of their former lives. This one is self-contained; it is quite full of experiences of all sorts.

"How could it blossom if it was fraught with memories of a remote past? The mystery surrounding it makes it worthwhile. The open-minded people want to know more about their origin as human beings.

"It is this craving for knowledge which pushes them to understand and to seek the reasons for their existence on this Earth. The most advanced ones turn towards what is deemed to meet their expectations.

"An esoteric teaching reinforces their presentiment about reality beyond this monotonous life – in terms of its repeated daily acts.

"They foresee a completely richer diversity than what seems to punctuate their days and urges them to be searching, and to satisfy an inner and ever-growing thirst."
