Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, April 2, 1999 – 8:00 a.m

Life is a long journey on sometimes difficult paths. Faith will be your best compass to guide your steps. It's important to take the right direction in certain circumstances. It is in the depth of your heart, in inner silence, that you will find the answers. Your life's path is all set, in principle, but it may happen that you have to make a choice to follow a particular way rather than another; you have your free will. This is why this face to face with yourself can enlighten you and take you where you need to go. Always be in tune with your conscience at all times; you will lighten your life.

Your friends are slightly saturated with these messages; keep them to yourself henceforth. We will take it up with them later. They have enough to reflect on; one has to learn when to stop. As for us, we will continue our heart-to-heart. You do not seem to be saturated!

See you tomorrow.

Do not go to the garden of flowers!
O Friend! go not there;

In your body is the garden of flowers.
Take your seat on the thousand petals of the lotus,
and there gaze on the Infinite Beauty.
