Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fourth Revelation

Thursday, December 27, 2001 - 10:00 a.m.

My daughter, through you we can address all our aspirants. What you are experiencing, your sufferings, your doubts, your fears for today and tomorrow, all that belongs to what each one of you must go through sooner or later, to varying degrees.

"Spiritually, you also go through the same levels, the same process, and the associated questioning on the outcome of this work, which is not supported by university degrees. Only your own sensitivity facilitates your evaluation capability. The results cannot be measured with human references, hence the difficulty, for you, to find your bearings.

"It is in your heart that you can find answers – through an increasingly profound meditation which leads you on to planes where human points of reference are out of place. The special joy you derive from this contact with the divine presence is unique. It must constantly grow deeper, to become increasingly intense and complete. In these moments, your mind is no longer assailed by calculations and doubts.

"You are gliding above all the human contingencies to unite with the Divine and the rest does not matter any more."
