These messages will have a mixed reception and will be understood in different ways. Their origin is unusual and their content, seemingly very simple, hides subtler teachings than they may appear to have. It is really I who am here. You are not mistaken. Did I not come the previous years? You appeal to me in your heart on this anniversary day of my birth, and my valorous spiritual son lets me have his place to underline, in this way, this day with a very special blessing for you and your circle.

"The Mission has made headway since its inception in Fatehgarh, and it will not stop growing at its own pace, as it must do in the future. By divine grace, my Son illuminated it with his greatness, and his successor is doing an exemplary job.

"He is our very worthy representative and we are thankful to him for his service to a cause that requires so many efforts of him, and causes him such numerous worries. All is numbered; he advances, ennobled by this so-well-accomplished mission. Love guides his footsteps; he finds in it the best possible energy to advance on this long and arid road, which leaves his heart thirsty as it will find true joy only when he has rejoined us. We surround him, as was rarely the case for a spiritual Master, so that he can go on until the end of his mission. May blessings directed to him and the whole Mission on this particular day be felt in each of your hearts."
