Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

We appreciate your integrity and your rigour in this work. Your Cartesian mindset puts it in a context where no whimsical interpretation is allowed. You are a realistic medium that relies on evidence and you don't let yourself be carried away by an imagination that would not be desirable for this kind of contact. Whether you are recognised or not by people sceptical and impervious to this kind of communication, your work will remain a model of the genre. This clarification is necessary, not for the people in your circle – whom you trust – but only to stress that our trust is based on precise elements. Channelling is far from being largely recognised; it is an area where scientific evidence cannot be given for the moment. It is therefore necessary to put up with the reactions of a majority of individuals, and make sure that one day the greatest number can benefit from this teaching. Opportunities will arise by themselves. One day, the events that will occur on this planet will propel people's minds into another comprehension of these phenomena considered as paranormal.

"In the past, teachings of this kind were received and shared thereafter by inspired Masters. No difference was then established; isn't it the main thing that humans should be helped, one way or the other?"
