Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Tuesday, February 5, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

Come back down to Earth, my daughter. Don't you want to complete your page this morning? There are days when it is hard to emerge from meditation.

"This refreshing bath raises the soul and transports it well beyond this world, in the incandescent light of a space unknown to men. The benefits provided by meditation are special and manifold. They cannot be measured objectively. This asset ennobles the soul and enriches the entire being. Practise as much as possible, you thus acquire a broader and more real vision of the world. The veils of illusion will be raised for you and you will be able to glimpse a truth that will reinforce your eagerness – resulting from your personal work and ours – to advance in knowledge.

"Your efforts are not in vain; they are all recorded on your personalised register, illuminated by rich moments of your sadhana. They form a striking collection: your passport for eternity, shall we say. You do so many useless things in this life that it is comforting for you to know that in this area, the least of your acts are recorded. It is up to you to ensure that this divine nest egg grows to the maximum possible."
