Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Wednesday, February 6, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

The progress of the soul is irresistible; it is made at its own pace and according to the strength of the call emanating from it. It receives proportionally to its deep aspiration. Its beauty attracts grace, and the love that it radiates fosters its elevation. A way like ours comes just at the right moment in this journey, which it accomplishes from life to life. A guide is necessary for it to reach the highest level; it has always been like that. It is one of the laws of evolution; the rules thereof are unchanged since the world has existed. These subtleties are not easy to understand. Why is a Master needed to reach the goal? His own experience and personal fulfilment put him in a favourable condition to help the candidate and guide him through the highest degrees. A solo quest can be appropriate for a time, but real work cannot be carried out with only the goodwill of a seeker, in spite of his faith however strong it may be. When the aspiration to rise is very strong, an opportunity arises that brings the solution to satisfy it. Everything comes at the right time. The wish of a sincere heart ends up being granted; he is guided – when the moment is favourable – towards the source that will be able to quench his thirst. God, in his great mercy, listens to his creatures whose calls reach out to Him. He always answers one way or the other, for the good of everyone. Fervour is never ignored and it finds the best channel to be expressed."
