Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Thursday, February 7, 2002 - 9:30 a.m.

It is a great day for you, my daughter; our comments will make you feel ill at ease. Be that as it may, you leave your cocoon and you make progress in your spiritual fulfilment. We know that you do not like us to praise you, but that is the way it goes. You have been serving us for such a long time and without asking for any favour; your progress is well deserved, it is proportionate to your practice and what you cultivate inside you. You must show this message and drop your usual reserve; we want it so. We have to rush you so that you accede to our wish on this point. We have been preparing you for the idea of this new condition for the last few days; you know it. There are circumstances when our work must be revealed. We find in you favourable conditions to achieve it; therefore, you should not fear to open up on this occasion. The information will remain limited to your circle. There is nothing for you to be moved about; that is the way it goes. Our messages today are out of the ordinary; we had to make some clarifications. Enjoy your condition, feel the lightness of your heart and render thanks for what is given to you. Share with those who are dear to you and who you have confidence in; they will benefit from it.

"Blessings to all."
