Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Friday, February 8, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

The source is not dried up; we are here and will continue as long as necessary to keep up your faith. These many repetitions are not useless; you change and your comprehension widens. Therefore, we revert to some very simple truths, on which it is good to insist. You receive them differently; you have changed, and for this reason you have gained some knowledge on many points which you believed you had grasped inside out. Your intellectual approach showed you a facet of the subjects covered previously. Today you can go further and take in differently what we say. Your view of things must be brought back to the main thing and not be carried away in complicated deductions any more. All is simple regarding real spirituality – that which corresponds to real progress and which is not based on data likely to satisfy superficial and factitious knowledge. The path is increasingly narrow when you progress, and sobriety ensues, brightening up the way. Superfluity eliminates itself, the candidate moves away from what burdens him unnecessarily. He sees through himself, finally, and he can make decisions that are essential. Henceforth, he will carry out his life with wisdom and discernment. Having reached this stage, all becomes clearer for him; there is no more time to waste. That is how a soul is brought to being able to rise without mishap and in harmony with the being of flesh, the vehicle which serves it in this lifetime."
