Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Sunday, February 17, 2002 - 5:30 p.m.

This is a peaceful hour for you and more favourable than our usual appointments, often included in a busy schedule. You can meditate quietly and receive us with an all desired serenity. Let this happy state overwhelm you and subjugate your heart; it will open out as we are in contact. Each meditation is a step towards the goal; these are small steps, but they add up. It is irreplaceable; don't do without it. Wherever you may be, for at least a few moments, make sure you get connected to the Divine that dwells in you. It is hidden from the eyes of the world, but its treasures are there, in you; by persevering, you truly discover them. See how good it is to interiorise oneself and to let oneself be carried by this wave that defies time and the many limitations existing in this world. This treasure is in you; it cannot be taken away. It can resist everything and it will propel you, when the time comes, towards other places more livable. Far from the world's noise and hustle and bustle, aren't these moments unique? It is up to you to devote to them their due place and to let yourself be carried by this special vibration, generous in terms of its effects. You come out of it regenerated and more serene. Life with its excesses of all sorts has less hold on you. You will gain strength and wisdom by it; it is worth turning one's attention to."
