Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Thursday, February 21, 2002 - 8:30 a.m.

It was important for your relationship with my son to develop. You know how much the role of a living Master is important; we have sufficiently addressed this topic. Your process must imperatively continue under his high protection and his vigilance, in utmost union with him. You should value the fact of having a spiritual Master of his stature; it is a rare opportunity in one's lifetime. Make the most of all the treasures he allows you to get; all the souls who search do not have this possibility.

"One day, you will realise how lucky you were; therefore you should be grateful and not waste time.

"A spiritual way is fraught with obstacles; there comes a moment in this process when the higher competence of a highly advanced being is necessary. The more you advance, the more imperative the need becomes for the support of this guide. He spares you the pitfalls, from wasting time, and a restless wandering that would not lead you directly to the sought-after goal. Believe us, we know what we are talking about and what your needs are. We want only good for you and we offer a degree of effectiveness likely to satisfy your noblest aspirations, since they aim at divine realisation, for which we all here are working for the good of humanity."
