Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Thursday, February 21, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

My dear daughter, make the most of all that is generously offered to you. Time is counted, for him and you. You are nearing the accomplishment stage of your lives, and all must be definitively settled. You should give priority to spirituality. Let your heart go; don't impose any restraint to it any more in this area. It is not necessary. You cannot be disappointed as in human relationships. In this process, all is different; love can be expressed and show its worth. You know well that it is the essential element in this matter; so, don't repress it any more and let it shine brilliantly. You know very well what we are driving at; therefore you should become a submissive disciple who is confident in the power of his Master, and entrust your destiny to him.

"Our relationship pertains to another level; you need him, he is our representative on the Earth, mandated to do a specific work which is no longer in our remit. Put us together with all the might of your love, but see us as distinct entities with regard to our respective functions.

"Think of all this; with our blessings to all."
