Whispers from The Brighter World

A Third Revelation

Friday, February 22, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

Be consumed with love, my child. This way is yours; it is the most beautiful. Let your mind be at rest. Provide for what is absolutely essential, but give real importance only to the targeted goal. You have reached a moment in your life where priorities must prevail fully. Your future, elsewhere, hinges on what you have. Therefore, you should not neglect the present, it determines the remainder of your evolution. We insist on the fact that a true mystic does not have time to fritter away. His heart knows the requirements and it makes sure not to shy away from them. Your heart should not be repressed any more in this space that is reserved for it. It must open out fully and glide, serene and detached from useless aspects. Let it vibrate as it pleases, happy to have broken the mooring ropes that hindered its progress.

"Life deserves living; it is full of consequences all of which should be fully utilised. It is made of many possibilities that facilitate the ultimate test. Nothing is useless; the smallest experience has its own importance. Man's development builds on the least of his acts. His thoughts, positive or negative, are to be considered with the greatest attention; they are acts. They creep into him every day and he must keep them under control, imperatively, so as not to be a victim of them.

"You all should be vigilant in every respect."
