Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Saturday, February 23, 2002 - 8:30 a.m.

You see how your life is so full of varied experiences. You were granted many possibilities for your fulfilment as a human being. Parallel to that, your spiritual life has developed to the extent that our encounter happened, with regard to your entry into the Mission. What you could not even imagine was awaiting you there. You had started practising without much enthusiasm, and then, after having tried out the system, you committed yourself to it fully. From then on, your life has changed; you found what you were looking for. We met again and a special relationship was established between us, which has culminated in these daily contacts. What does life hold for you now? You don't know; therefore, keep faith in your destiny which has, hitherto, fulfilled you on many aspects. Be grateful for all the beautiful and good things you have received, and even for all of the tests you have experienced. They have earned you a strong soul that makes you a special being. Give unrestrainedly around you what nature has granted to you generously, by redistributing it to the unfortunate hearts."
