Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Wednesday, February 27, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

You have cleared the step valiantly; you can carry on, on your way, while choosing to continue with us, if you have the strength for that. We do not impose anything on you; it is up to you to make a decision. We can hear you, my child; we will do as best we can, on both sides. Service is the driving force of spiritual life. It gives it a double meaning. By being offered to the Divine, all the conditions for progress are met. Whether it is an active or passive service, if you put yourself at the disposal of divine forces, it is enough to do it with conviction and love, and then the objective is achieved. There are many ways of offering oneself; the single fact of proposing to serve, puts you in a good condition. You advance in peace with yourself, convinced of having done what you had to. By practising seriously, you do serve; you work for yourself and you serve a grand design. Following a spiritual way with conviction and ardour places you in a vibratory spiral, the effects of which are reflected ad infinitum. You act for your own good and beyond, by amplifying the movement which is the prelude to final regeneration."
