Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Wednesday, February 27, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

You can see that the calls of your heart were not futile. The Masters who influenced your path before you arrived in our way continue to follow you and to talk to you. They are, all of them in their own way, luminous beings full of love.

"Entirely dedicated to the Divine Cause, they work for the good of created worlds. They left their mark in you – you have made progress under their attentive eyes – to lead you towards the way that was reserved for you in this lifetime. The road was long before arriving at this result. You have grown in many respects. Your heart had found its way a long time ago; only love was defining it and gave it the necessary signs which you could see to convince yourself and make you move on. Thank unceasingly for all that was given to you on this blessed way. You considered yourself as small, surrendered to God; the angels guided you towards us.

"The heart of a child is moving. You also, you should try to keep the heart of a child throughout your lifetime, and you should love without condition and unrestrainedly – there is the secret."
