Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Monday, March 4, 2002 - 8:30 a.m.

Dismiss all this sadness, my daughter; life is a series of new beginnings. Doesn't spring bring about an infinite bustling in the manifestation of its strength! Change does not mean end. Even what humans call the end, is not an end; you know it well. Change is creative. It is necessary and it maintains life. There is always a positive aspect in change; you should consider it like that and make sure to contribute to it. Man wrongly creates roots for himself in this world. Big families of the past used to mark their territory, believing they were rooted in the places of their birth. The possession of goods is illusory, just like gifts, whatever they are. Everything is given only temporarily, like all the accessories that stage actors benefit from. Life pulls the strings of the game, like in puppet shows. One should better accept it all willingly, while thanking God for the opportunities granted to him to fully utilise all the resources of this temporary personality."

Babuji