Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Monday, March 4, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

You have accepted important changes in your life. In coming to Montpellier as we asked you to, you answered our request out of love, but that represented a big sacrifice for you. You considered this move as an end; the prospect caused great sadness in you, but you did not hesitate to answer our request. This episode of your life is rich; you have made necessary encounters for what you have been accomplishing for many years. This change was not an end, but a beginning. All the elements were set up, as they had to be, to help you in your current mission.

"No matter what happens, it is preferable to look ahead, to see the opportunities offered by life and to make the most of them. Faith in God must be your only guide, and faith in your Masters whom you consider as his representatives as per your choice. Everything is being set up according to well-established plans; one should better accept them with gratitude and love by giving their best. Thus life becomes constructive and full of experiments, well accepted with joy and in a state of surrender."
