Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Tuesday, March 5, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

By accepting one's life with gratitude and love, one makes a success of it. Whatever it may be, if it is full of experiences that are led in the appropriate frame of mind, it is enlightening. In general, success does not lie where man believes it to be, but in the spirit that guides it throughout this process until the end. Each life comprises a great treasure. You should try to understand it and utilise the least piece of it, with great wisdom. Man vainly seeks outside the precious things he has inside. Most of the time, he neglects this major asset. He does not utilise it correctly and misses what could change his life by giving it its true dimension. The wise man tries to penetrate this mystery, to interiorise himself by putting into perspective all the adventures disturbing his existence. He wants to understand their meaning and what is hidden behind this disconcerting precariousness. While advancing in his spiritual search, he becomes aware of the treasure concealed inside himself and, little by little while progressing in this discovery, he understands the supreme reality of life."
