Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Thursday, March 7, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

Can you feel how, in these short moments, your physical body has become the vassal of this spiritual heart that rises up in its wake? Time seems abolished, it does not matter any more; the osmosis is perfect and all its particles vibrate in infinite love. This unique vibration transcends everything and touches, with its grace, the hearts that are calling it with fervour. Enjoy these moments, my daughter. These moments are fleeting, but they leave traces; the soul keeps their flavour and remains delighted. Starting off one's day by being united with the Divine, is it not adorning it with light and beauty? After such a contact, can the heart let itself go into hating or slandering and judging? It must be better equipped to make it face up to things and not let itself be overcome by bad advisers, i.e., thoughts, which need to be closely watched. They are insidious; sometimes they gain ground, lamentably, by surprise or from force of habit. You should all pay attention to that. You'd better track them down, without any regret; they do not bring about any happy solutions.

"Weeds must be removed all the time; they are tough but not indestructible."
