Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Thursday, March 21, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

A loving heart does not remain unnoticed. It is accompanied in its rise. It attracts subtle forces that strengthen it, and help it to overcome its weaknesses. By having this holy refuge of faith and love, you will never be alone. Reaching this stage results from a long process developed over many incarnations. What you have in this one is precious: you cannot ignore it and cannot do anything but strive towards achieving the goal. Be grateful for being in this frame of mind, and for having your heart blessed with so much grace. Your encounter with the living Master is the sign of it. Conditions are met to enable you to advance on the way, surrendered to his vigilance. You were seeking before getting to him. You are not truly aware of your luck; this opportunity does not present itself on a regular basis. Not seizing it would result in waiting for a very long time, even many lives, before finding it again. Do not let human reactions, egotistic, drive you away from the source, under the pretence that your brothers within the Mission are not as perfect as you would like them to be. If you yourselves had reached that stage you would not see their faults any more and would not be any more in judgement. Think about it."
