Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Friday, March 22, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

Have we insisted enough on the need for working on your weak points? Repetitions are necessary to man, so that the message can be anchored firmly in him. All humans are at the same level on this issue. Each incarnate being must face up to the various aspects of one's personality; they can prove to be difficult to apprehend and especially to manage. Will he succeed without too many difficulties, or even dramas? There lies the crux of the problem. By opening up to spirituality, he acquires a strength that helps him in all the manifestations of life. He becomes better aware of the precariousness of his life and of the importance that should be given to tendencies slowing down his evolution. This awareness is a step forward on this long way fraught with difficulties. The process is more complex than it seems, this is why we will come back once again to the importance of the Master in accelerating its pace.

"The most sincere and determined candidate needs this active support capable of saving him from the pitfalls of the process."
