Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Monday, March 25, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

Trust us, our message of the day may not necessarily or instantly fit with your own perception of things, which should not constitute an obstacle. It is desirable that you do not write like a machine, but you cannot control everything; this practice would hinder our projects. Whereas you wish to note down scrupulously what we inspire in you, you should not let doubt continuously creep inside you. For these projects to succeed, you must completely get rid of this kind of reaction. You must not only trust us completely, but also, trust yourself. We know that we expect much of you. You give us your energy; you are at our complete disposal – and all this in a spirit of surrender and love, without a feeling of being under pressure. We appreciate it, my daughter; you know it and we ask much of you. We know that your heart is not weary of listening to us, that it is completely at our disposal. This is why we would like to go further; we know that you are capable of it. We leave you time to consider this proposal. It is up to you to decide, taking into account your health, which we would not like to disturb on any account. We bless you, my daughter, and all of you who surround her."
