Whispers from The Brighter World

A Third Revelation

Wednesday, March 27, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

Your great strength is that you always look beyond appearances. You see beings and things with different perceptions and criteria than your fellow men.

"Like each one of them, you must nevertheless put up with some karmic relationships necessary to your evolution. We do not come alone, isolated, into this world. Our incarnation partakes of quite a precise plan, decided in advance. All has its raison d'être and it is preferable to accept the various manifestations thereof with full consciousness of this need. No two lives are alike. Each one has one's own life well suited to their needs – in an absolutely rigorous way. Man cannot shirk any of the tests reserved for him. They can be alleviated, modified, according to the circumstances, but they are recorded on the planned register, determining the evolution of the being.

"God shapes him as He sees fit. The laws are strictly established; nobody escapes it.

"Man is only a negligible element of creation, but his place is reserved. Nothing is done without reason and a precise goal. For this reason, you should have wisdom to accept what this stay on Earth holds for you; it is only when you have left it that you can appropriately take stock of it."
