Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

vercome your reserve, my dear daughter, and show the love distilled by your heart. We have often come back to this subject; is there anything more beautiful and nobler in this world? Its songs resound in the hearts that call it, and God, reciprocally, accommodates them in his heart. Love creates amazingly beautiful bonds. The human being, who lets himself be subjugated by its accents, cannot define them. Loving strengthens the heart and transforms life, giving it a different light. Let yourself be carried by this vibration that uplifts the soul and makes it replete. Advance in this way; it is your refuge when everything is dull around you. Enter into sadhana with delight; let it plunge you into a universe where your heart can be delighted. Call these moments when nothing else exists but this contact with the divinity. You come out of it with increased stature, and transformed little by little. The gangue of materiality lets in light, which seeps into you, ennobling your soul. Be well aware of all that you are doing and the mark left inside you by these privileged moments."
