Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Friday, March 29, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

By diversifying our remarks, whether in terms of topics or the way we address them, we try to catch your attention and touch the right chord in you.

"It takes a lot of words, reminders, and sometimes cries, to catch your attention. Your attention lets itself be caught by any other thing: by nothings – most of the time – that do not lead it anywhere. It takes some inner strength to arrange a parallel life inside oneself, detached from materiality. It all ends up, sooner or later, at this point of coming into being. How many lives are necessary to arrive at the conclusion that everything else, except the Divine, is useless in this world! Sailing on the waters of serenity is no easy thing. This state results from a long commitment, from renewed efforts and from a profound aspiration to reach the other side. Do not be insensitive to the echoes that reach you and make you glimpse a different world, far from human turpitudes. While advancing towards the goal, you can see the effects thereof; blessed moments give you a foretaste of it. Preciously collect the pearls you receive. They prepare you for a more harmonious future life, adequate for the aspirations of a heart in exile, a loving heart."
