Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Saturday, March 30, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

Yes, my daughter, you can thank God for having been guided towards us. We are not the only way, but this one is yours. So was it decided for you in this life. You are where you must be, here and now. It is great luck to be able to meet the living Master, the one you can fasten all your hopes on to accelerate your evolution, and who will keep guiding you beyond this incarnation. Knowing how to thank is important; so many graces are given to men, yet they ignore them or regard them as normal. Tests are badly accepted; they raise so many reproaches, cries, on the part of those who find them unjustified, and God is good insofar as He distributes happiness. What about this notion and state to which men aspire? To reach a level of wisdom that allows one to understand and accept going through all these states, is a sign of some degree of evolution. Man needs to be enlightened, guided by beings returning to this Earth to help humanity. Reaching them is a very special blessing."
