Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Wednesday, April 3, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

Don't let yourself be affected by the ebb and flow of life. Preserve yourself by letting the events fly away like images on a screen. Don't pay more attention to them than what is necessary. Your inner being is following its way imperturbably, focusing only on the goal, the fusion with the Ultimate, which will release it from the ultimate test. You should also show only the amount of interest suited to the many events of your Earthly existence. Imagine how it will be when you have completed it. Start developing it even now in order to enrich it, and to prepare yourself for more rejoicing horizons. The tragedy of a great number of human beings is that they attach too much importance to the events that punctuate their life. Get used to placing them in a context divested of the excess interest you attach to them. It is not easy to control oneself, to put things in perspective while being in real-life situations, but this work falls to you personally; nobody can do it in your place. Progress to that end will make you grow in wisdom. See only the main thing by taking refuge inside yourself in this highly preserved place, far from frenzies and worries, and you will find serenity. Make efforts; one day, the divine goal will be reached."
