Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Thursday, April 4, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

You have the key to a refuge where you can isolate yourself whenever you wish. A regular practice leads to this state, which cannot be taken away from you. The sadhana changes the life of all our sufficiently assiduous candidates, who benefit from all its effects. They don't fully realise the changes taking place in them. These affect the subtle levels of their being, before they show in a more visible way in the human form. It is not like waving a magic wand; this kind of progress does not result from a practice of that kind. Rather, it is a durable progress, which therefore deserves some efforts. The resulting benefits encourage our followers to continue, thus marking with a special stamp a search that will necessarily lead them to materialising an aspiration to uniting with the Divine. The time of assessment will confirm the soundness of their choices. They will not be disappointed. No matter what happens in their life, this asset is imperishable. The results require great perseverance; without it nothing can be successful. With it, the fruits of the crop will be highly appreciable."
