Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Thursday, April 4, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

My dear daughter, we must make the most of your availability, as much as possible. These daily contacts take much of your energy, which the state of your health does not replenish easily. We appreciate your commitment and your perseverance in serving us, in spite of the related inconvenience for you. The advantage in this matter is that your heart delights in these contacts that serve you spiritually. What is exuded by these messages cannot be assessed objectively. They operate on different levels; their action operates in the secrecy of hearts, and cannot be assessed easily. Although they do not give any sensational revelations, they deserve your devoted attention to them.

"Our remarks touch the right chord in you; some of them resonate in your hearts in a special way and help you to see life differently. This transformation takes place slowly, but it is real. We insist for your good. We do not sell anything; by trying to let you see your way of leading your life from another perspective, we intend to help you to progress. Such is our dearest wish."
