Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Wednesday, April 10, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

Make sure that these times of birthday celebrations in the Mission set milestones enabling you to take stock. Try to get prepared in your hearts, in order to receive the best of the graces that will be distributed when the time comes. Make the most of these circumstances in planning your timetable to set aside some more time to honour your Masters, which will deepen your sadhana. These key periods will influence your life, if you actually want to devote to them the necessary place and interest. This way of doing things is suggested only to help you, and not to maintain any idolatry; that is not our goal. There is no such thing in our way, which is divested of useless artifices, and which is only meant to make you progress. Man needs time for reflection, for a break in his every day life capable of bringing him to interiorisation and self-assessment. We will need to have finer feelings and right decisions in these moments when he is before himself, while looking at himself with lucidity. Make it your habit to punctuate your path with these halts, which let the best of you emerge. You will come out of it with increased stature."
