Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Tuesday, April 16, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

The repetition of certain principles is important. It shapes your spiritual personality by strengthening it. If you look at yourself with lucidity, you can note that your work has changed you radically. Your steadfastness pays off. Our teaching relates to some essential points, which we revert to unceasingly, shedding a new light on it. You have changed. Our speech is therefore different. Your heart has opened up to a very simple truth, devoid of arid descriptions usually made in this area. There is nothing complicated in this initiatory process that you are engaged in; on the contrary, you yourself must simplify the image of this process by making it lighter, ethereal and serene. God appreciates simple hearts open to beauty and love. There is no point in bothering them with complicated formulas, undecodable by the multitude. All are equal before Him. His laws are rigorous in this aspect.

"Try to create in yourself this state of vacuity, if you do not have it yet. Imagine a luminous space where you can expose your treasures, those already acquired and additional ones. It is up to you to be creative and aware of this reality."
