Thursday, April 18, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

Meditating deeply, letting oneself slip into one's heart of hearts –is this not a blessing every time? These intense moments are not ordinary, but they must be lived with utmost devotion. You all who follow us faithfully, you know such moments, more or less strongly felt and enriching in many respects. Advancing assiduously in our practice, you enjoy its benefits; never doubt it. One day, the goal will be reached for your good and to your greater joy."
