Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Saturday, April 20, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

We follow all of you in your process. Whatever its difficulty, you are not an isolated seeker left to self-doubt and uncertainty regarding the result of your process. Here, you know that it takes time, a lot of time, to reach the goal but you will reach it. Your confidence in us is well placed; it is an important point for the abhyasi to know that his steps are guided, and that he is not likely to go astray on useless ways in his search. To remain connected to the Master entails a choice; then it is necessary to do one's share of the work. Nobody can do it in your place. It is through rigour that valiant hearts are shaped. Nothing stops them; not even human feelings, which have nothing to do with this personal search belonging only to you. It does not go against your duties in everyday life, whether family-related or professional. We speak here about your secret garden; each individual has his own, and nothing and nobody must interfere in this space reserved and protected from the external world. Thus will your greater success be built."
